DUELING VIOLINS: Vadim Gluzman & Philippe Quint 2017 SOIRÉE BENEFIT & CONCERT

ProMusica Chamber Orchestra partners with prominent Columbus-area corporations for the annual Soirée Benefit & Concert, our signature fundraising event, which combines a private party with a special concert.

A Corporate Sponsorship provides you an opportunity to:

Enhance your philanthropic visibility in the community through key promotional pieces;

Reinforce your reputation as a good corporate citizen through support of a beloved arts organization; and

Develop closer relationships with current and prospective clients.

Enjoy the opportunity to promote your company to ProMusica's high-end clientele while enjoying a fun evening, perfect for entertaining clients and vendors or thanking employees!

Why Partner with ProMusica?

- Over 30% of ProMusica patrons have a household income of over $125,000.
- Our patrons reside in key Columbus suburbs, with a majority coming to us from Upper Arlington, Bexley, Worthington, Dublin, New Albany, and Downtown.
- ProMusica has ended its past 7 seasons in a positive financial position, so you can be sure your investment is sound.

Saturday, February 11, 2017 The Westin Columbus & The Southern Theatre

On Saturday, February 11, 2017, ProMusica Chamber Orchestra sets the stage for an epic showcase of talent and versatility as we welcome world-class violinists Vadim Gluzman and Philippe Quint to our 17th-annual Soirée. Gluzman, ProMusica's Creative Partner and Principal Guest Artist who has been hailed as "the next Itzhak Perlman," and Quint, a Grammy-nominated American violinist known for excelling in everything from opera to tango, will become "mortal enemies" for the evening, squaring off in a can't-miss battle of pure virtuosity in the form of strings, suites, and scherzos.

6:00 PM — Join us at our pre-concert party, held at the downtown Westin Columbus, with fine food and drinks, live entertainment and the chance to win exclusive prizes.

8:00 PM — Move adjacent to the Southern Theatre for the ProMusica concert featuring this year's guest artists, violinists Vadim Gluzman and Philippe Quint.

ABOUT PROMUSICA

Our Mission

To deliver a world-class and unique classical music experience – through innovative chamber orchestra programming, educational outreach, audience intimacy, and artistic excellence.

100% of your sponsorship dollars go to support ProMusica’s artistic and outreach activities throughout the season. With your help, we can:

Celebrate Great Music

With a national reputation for its artistic quality and commitment to new music, ProMusica is gaining recognition as one of the top chamber orchestras in the country. That reputation, coupled with the international pedigree of our artistic leadership, strengthens our renown locally, nationally and internationally, enhancing ProMusica’s integral role in serving as an ambassador for the city and marketing Columbus as a cultural destination.

“It is a true blessing to have the opportunity to see and hear such a high level of music performed right here in central Ohio.”

-- Todd Martin, concert attendee

Enrich Our Community

We are committed to making great music accessible to our community. Free, family-friendly concerts are offered through our outdoor Summer Music Series at the Topiary Park and at the Columbus Metropolitan Library. Open Rehearsals for Seniors and our CODA Post-Concert Conversations provide learning opportunities that complement the concert experience.

“I want to thank you for playing such beautiful music here. I live in the neighborhood and never have the chance to experience and listen to this kind of music. Thank you.”

-- Summer Series concert attendee

Provide Education and Outreach

We serve hundreds of children and students each year through our Youth & Family, Play Us Forward, Side-by-Side, and Musicians in the Schools programs. Support important music education opportunities for the youth in our community, inspiring a lifelong interest in music and the arts.

“The musicians who have visited our schools inspire and motivate our students in their day-to-day practice in orchestra because of interesting, high-quality coaching sessions and excellent teaching.”

-- Julie Ellis, Worthington Schools orchestra director

About the Artists

Don't miss this special one-night-only event, as longtime friends and colleagues Vadim Gluzman and Philippe Quint battle with formidable virtuosity for the benefit of ProMusica Chamber Orchestra!

Vadim Gluzman

Recently named one of the top 30 violinists of the 20th century and hailed as “the next Itzhak Perlman,” Vadim Gluzman’s extraordinary artistry brings to life the glorious violinistic tradition of the 19th and 20th centuries. Gluzman’s wide repertoire embraces new music and his performances are heard around the world through live broadcasts and a striking catalogue of award-winning recordings.

The Israeli violinist collaborates regularly with leading conductors, and he has performed with the major symphony orchestras, including the Berlin Philharmonic, Boston Symphony, Cleveland Orchestra, and Chicago Symphony. This season, Mr. Gluzman appears in New York’s Carnegie Hall with the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra and leads performances of the ProMusica Chamber Orchestra in Columbus, Ohio, where he continues his fourth year as Creative Partner and Principal Guest Artist.

Vadim Gluzman plays on the legendary 1690 ‘ex-Leopold Auer’ Stradivari on extended loan to him through the generosity of the Stradivari Society of Chicago.

Philippe Quint

Lauded by Daily Telegraph (UK) for his “searingly poetic lyricism” violinist Philippe Quint is carving an unconventional path with his impassioned musical desire for reimagining traditional works, rediscovering neglected repertoire to commissioning works by contemporary composers. His dedication to exploring different styles and genres with an award winning discography has solidified him as one of the foremost violinists of today.

Receiving several Grammy nominations for his two albums of Korngold and William Schuman Concertos, Mr. Quint is in constant demand worldwide appearing with major orchestras at venues ranging from the Gewandhaus in Leipzig to Carnegie Hall in New York.

Highlights of 2015/2016 season included performances with Colorado, Seattle & North Carolina Symphonies. Constantly in demand worldwide, Quint’s most recent appearances include performances with the orchestras of London, Los Angeles, Chicago, and Detroit, among others.

Philippe Quint plays the magnificent 1708 “Ruby” Antonio Stradivari violin on loan to him through the generous efforts of The Stradivari Society®.
